

Position: Operating Room Nurse

Facility Description:

Marin Specialty Surgery Center is currently a 2 Operating Room / 1 Procedure Room multi-specialty surgery center, located in Greenbrae, CA.

- Our operations have been growing substantially over the past year and further expansion is expected through the addition of several more surgeons and high-acuity cases.
- Marin Specialty Surgery Center will be opening a new state of the art 13,700 sq. ft Surgery Center in early 2020.
- The new MSSC will have 3 Operating Rooms, 1 Procedure Room and 3, 23hr stay rooms to facilitate outpatient total joints and spine.
- Our facility is AAAHC accredited and specializes in Orthopedics, Pain Management, Urology, and Plastic Surgery.
- It is an exciting time and opportunity to join our team! For facility specific information, visit: <https://marinspecialtysurgerycenter.com/>

SCA, a leader in the outpatient surgery industry, strategically partners with health plans, medical groups and health systems across the country to develop and optimize surgical facilities. SCA operates more than 210 surgical facilities, including ambulatory surgery centers and surgical hospitals, in partnership with approximately 7,500 physicians. For more information on SCA, visit www.scasurgery.com.

Position Description:

- The Perioperative (OR) Registered Nurse is responsible for assessing, planning, implementing and coordinating patient care throughout operative course. The Registered Nurse is responsible for the achievement of patient outcomes through implementation of critical pathways and in accordance with the mission, vision, and values of the facility.

Position Reports to:

- Director of Nursing or Operating Room Manager

Position Supervises:

- Licensed Practical Nurse/Licensed Vocational Nurse, Surgical Technologist, Certified Surgical Technologist, Patient Care Attendant, Patient Care Technician, Nurse's Aide, Medical Assistant

Degree of Supervision Provided to Position:

- Medium, must be self-directed and works under direction of the Director of Nursing or Operating Room Manager.

Education, Experience, and Licensure:

- Graduate of an Accredited School of Nursing, BSN preferred. Must have one year of OR experience. Experience in an ambulatory surgery center preferred. Current state licensure to practice. Successful completion of Basic Life Support (BLS) upon hire and successful completion of ACLS Course within 90 days of employment or documentation of current ACLS certification. Specialty certification in Perioperative Nursing (CNOR) preferred.

Job Requirements:

A. Skills and Abilities:

- Ability to correlate clinical data with patient's medical and nursing care.
- Ability to set priorities.
- Ability to provide direction to others that is clear, concise and promotes efficiency throughout the clinical areas of the facility.
- Ability to communicate well with patients, families, Teammates, physicians, other members of the healthcare team, etc.
- Recognizes legal and policy limits of individual practice.

B. Internal Relationships (Works Closely With):

- As a representative of Surgical Care Affiliates, all comments, attitudes, actions, and behaviors have a direct effect on the Facility's image and perceptions of quality service. Interaction with patients, families, physicians, referral sources, affiliating schools, visitors, volunteers, co-workers, supervisors, vendors, etc. must be in a manner that is friendly, supportive, courteous, respectful, cooperative, and professional. This behavior should promote an atmosphere of teamwork, which is congruent with Facility standards and guidelines to promote positive relations.

C. Clinical Quality:

1. Assesses, plans, evaluates and ensures the implementation of the patient's care to achieve identified outcomes and delivers safe patient care according to facility policy and procedure.
 - Assesses patient status throughout operative process.
 - Implements appropriate standards of care based on assessment data and patient's own goals. Goals are mutually set with the patient and family.
 - Coordinates nursing interventions to enhance achievement of expected outcomes and to ensure readiness for discharge.
 - Ensures provision of patient care daily in an organized and timely manner.
 - Adheres to all facility policies and procedures when providing patient care.
 - Utilizes nursing care standards when planning and implementing patient care.
 - Demonstrates ability to direct and provide for patient care in emergency situations.
 - Assesses learning needs according to patient's level of understanding and readiness to learn.
 - Evaluates patient's progress toward outcome achievement on an ongoing basis.
 - Revises plan of care based on change in patient status and/or information gathered at change of shift
 - Documents patient's progress toward achievement of outcomes.
 - Directs others in the implementation of the teaching plan.

2. Assumes an active role in the provision of quality nursing care for patients receiving care.
 - Utilizes specialized nursing knowledge, nursing process and discriminative judgment while giving direct or indirect care.
 - Analyzes nursing care provided in the facility related to the established standards of care.
 - Participates in the monitoring and evaluation of nursing care provided.
 - Demonstrates ability to coordinate the nursing care provided in the facility.
 - Assigns patient care responsibilities based on patient needs and abilities of available staff.
 - Assumes charge nurse responsibility as assigned.
 - Demonstrates ability to make decisions concerning facility-based problems.
 - Participates on quality council to facilitate improvement of patient care.
 - Participates in the orientation of nursing staff.
 - Participates in developing standardized patient education programs, as requested.
 - Participates in team conferences on assigned patients.
3. Demonstrates continued competence in assessing, treating, and caring for individuals based upon age-specific needs utilizing a developmental perspective.
 - Demonstrates appropriate knowledge and competence of designated skills identified for position.
 - Displays an understanding of each patient's cognitive, physical, emotional, and chronological maturity in the assessments, treatment, and care undertaken based on age-specific criteria.
 - Appropriately modifies approach to the patient based upon patient age utilizing a developmental perspective.
 - Provides appropriate age-specific interventions related to safety issues.
4. Demonstrates appropriate knowledge and competence of designated skills identified for position in patient care duties.
 - Checks updated schedule each morning and prepare supplies and equipment.
 - History and physical assessment of patient.
 - Completes review of medical record.
 - Maintains patient normothermia.
 - Promotes physical comfort and provide emotional support and safety for patient.
 - Administers and charts medications as ordered by physician.
 - Reinforces and clarifies physician instructions and explanation of procedures to patient.
 - Provides nursing care and appropriate monitoring according to policies and procedures.
 - Communicates relevant information to physician, Facility Manager and appropriate staff.
 - Verifies surgical/procedure site with patient and according to surgical schedule and patient History and Physical.

- Obtains and verifies operative/procedure consent.
- Communicates relevant information to physician, Facility Manager and appropriate staff.
- Provides for patient safety by use of monitors, side rails, and assistance in ambulating and instruction on the use of call bell in bathroom.
- Provides instructions according to patient need.
- Completes nursing documentation on each operative procedure
- Assembles cases according to schedule and preference cards.
- In Pre-Operative Area, introduces self to patient, verifies patient identity, assesses patient's physical needs, alleviates patient anxiety, clarifies operative site, and checks chart for necessary documentation.
- Practices and monitors aseptic techniques.
- Ensures that the surgical site time-out process is followed and completed.
- Performs duties as circulating or scrub nurse (if applicable).
- Is responsible for positioning patient relevant to procedure with awareness of body alignment, circulation and pressure points.
- Applies electrosurgical return electrodes, tourniquets, etc., according to physician preference, policies and procedures.
- Provides necessary supportive equipment for patient comfort (i.e., pillows, blankets, protective paddings, etc.).
- Accurately completes intraoperative record and inventory sheet.
- Is accountable for accuracy and documentation of sponge, needle and instrument counts.
- Properly labels and cares for specimens.
- Provides and records all intraoperative medications and obtains physician signature of administration of same.
- Maintains adequate room supplies.
- Is knowledgeable of operation, cleaning and sterilization of instruments.
- Is knowledgeable of operation and cleaning of surgical equipment.
- Assists in stocking, replenishing, outdating and preparation of supplies.
- Reviews and updates physician preference cards.
- Has working knowledge of sterilizers and recorders.
- Assists physician and anesthesia personnel as needed.
- Provides emergency care according to physician and administrative policy.
- Sets priorities to facilitate the flow of patient efficiently.
- Cleans equipment and operating room/procedure room according to policy.
- Reviews charts for completeness and signatures of physicians.

- Prepares and restocks area for following day.
- Checks inventory and notifies appropriate staff member to re-order.
- Notifies appropriate staff member to order supplies.
- Initiates appropriate infection control measures.
- Maintains an environment that promotes safety:
 - Temperature range
 - Electrical safety measures
 - Oxygen and Suction Equipment
 - Resuscitation Equipment
 - Noise Control
 - Traffic Control
 - Control of Contamination

D. Teamwork/Accountability/Integrity:

5. Utilizes time effectively.
6. Follows established facility policies and procedures regarding attendance.
 - Maintains attendance according to guidelines and policy established by facility.
 - Adheres to tardiness policy.
 - Provides notification for unscheduled absences or tardiness in accordance with established departmental procedures as noted by supervisor.
 - Requests scheduled time off according to procedure as noted by supervisor.
7. Completes all documentation to ensure the availability of accurate and up to date information in accordance with established standards.
 - Maintains accurate records of controlled substances.
 - Documents nursing care and physicians' orders according to facility policy and best practice guidelines.
8. Adheres to established facility safety requirements and procedures to ensure a safe working environment.
 - Demonstrates to competent usage of proper body mechanics in all activities.
 - Identifies potentially unsafe situations and notifies supervisor.
 - Completes all Teammate/patient event and Variance documentation in a thorough and timely manner, as required by policy.
 - Demonstrates complete understanding of established emergency procedures for facility.
 - Practices infection control, standard precautions and universal precautions as instructed or trained.
 - Maintains work area and equipment in a neat, organized manner.

9. Assists with housekeeping tasks as necessary to provide a safe environment for patient's, teammates, physicians, and guests.
10. Performs all other duties as assigned by manager.

E. Continuous Improvement:

11. Maintains and evaluates own clinical expertise and clinical practice.
 - Attends 75% of unit-based staff meetings and demonstrates review of minutes for any meetings missed.
 - Provides in-services as requested by management
 - Participates in scheduled performance appraisals and demonstrates dedication to ongoing performance improvement.
12. Responsibly demonstrates and the importance of continuing education to the performance of facility responsibilities and growth in profession.
 - Maintains and displays appropriate knowledge of professional developments through printed material or other sources.
 - Attends professional training seminars when appropriate for job development and shares information with other Teammates.
 - Attends and participates in all applicable facility training and development workshops scheduled by the facility
 - Maintains work area and equipment in an organized and clean manner
 - Maintains dress and appearance according to standards as observed by management
 - Maintains up-to-date knowledge of job description, role, and responsibilities through continuing education activities
 - Maintains certification requirements and submits required evidence of certification to facility management for teammate file
 - Strives to be professional, courteous, helpful and cooperative.
13. Performs all other duties as assigned by management.

F. Compliance:

14. Upholds and practices the principles and policies of the SCA Compliance program.
15. Demonstrates the safe operation of equipment and machinery and follows procedures for reporting and correcting an unsafe situation.

G. Service Excellence:

16. Communicates patient information to assure confidentiality and continuity of care.
 - Documents all patient information according to established standards of care, policies and procedures.
 - Provides hand-off reports to other teammates that are accurate, concise and pertinent to the patient's condition and response to care.

- Provides pertinent patient information to the physician, family, teammates and other members of the multidisciplinary team.
 - Discusses patient information with other health team members in an appropriate environment.
 - Documents patient's/significant other's response to teaching interventions.
17. Interacts with all patients, families, visitors and fellow employees in a mature, responsible manner to ensure a positive and professional facility environment.
- Displays a caring and responsive attitude and conducts all activities respecting patient, family and employee rights and expectations.
 - Maintains confidentiality of all facility and patient information as required by facility policy.
18. Fosters a positive and professional facility environment by interacting with all persons in a considerate, helpful and courteous manner and by participating as a team member.
- Diffuses/resolves conflict by appropriately communicating with those involved.
 - Accepts constructive criticism and gives suggestions in a professional manner.
 - Considers age specific needs in communication.
19. Maintains dress and appearance according to standards as observed by management.
20. Demonstrates the safe operation of equipment and machinery and follows procedures for reporting and correcting an unsafe situation.
21. Demonstrates understanding and puts into practice the SCA value of Service Excellence.

H. Financial Skill:

1. Completes appropriate financial management responsibilities.
 - Provides input re: equipment needs/supply needs.
 - Completes patient charges in accordance with facility procedure.
 - Demonstrates sound cost containment techniques.
 - Participates in periodic inventory count as assigned by management.

I. Proficiency or Productivity Standards

ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS: Indoors in climate-controlled environment. Patient care environment with potential exposure to unpleasant odors, to blood and body fluids which may carry infection, to infectious disease, and to chemical and electrical hazards. Occasional exposure to outdoor climate.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS: Good visual acuity, accurate color vision. Ability to lift/transfer patients in excess of 100 pounds, which may require pushing, pulling and essentially utilizing a full range of body movement. Ability to stand, walk, stoop, kneel, crouch and/or crawl. Ability to reach, grasp, use fine finger movement and feel fine sensation to discern temperature, texture, size and shape. Ability to speak and hear.

MACHINES/EQUIPMENT USED: Clinical/Office equipment used for patient care.

All SCA teammates are expected to demonstrate appropriate behaviors that reflect our Values and act in ways that promote the best interest of our patients, physicians, and customers entrusted to our care.

*Job descriptions may be revised in writing to add or delete duties at any time at the discretion of management.

Hiring Manager E- Mail Address:

Sarah.Stone@scasurgery.com

City, State & Zip:

505 Sir Frances Drake Blvd, Greenbrae, CA 94904